4. Procedure

Procedure to receive, review, investigate into, initiate corrective action, and report on a complaint received from a Whistle blower.

Immediately upon receiving the envelope marked “WBP-PD” addressed to him by name, in conformity with the provisions of this Rule 3, the Nodal Officer shall make and maintain a detailed record of all the documentation received in a Register.

-Register of Protected Documents- which shall be serially page numbered and sequentially numbered against each Complaint received.

The Register of Protected Documents shall be deemed to be a permanent record of the Company and be kept under safe custody of the Compliance Officer of the Company. The Register shall be open to inspection by a third party only upon specific authorization of the Board of Directors or as required under a due process of law.

Unless specifically authorized by the Chairman of the Audit Committee, for the purposes of investigation, the identity of the person making over Protected Document shall not be disclosed to any third party or entity.

To ensure confidentiality of the identity of the Whistle Blower, upon making the entry, a distinctive serial number as recorded in the Register of Protected Document shall be assigned to each set of Protected Disclosure and shall form the primary reference number for all further record and documentation.

The Nodal officer shall make and submit a brief to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, setting out the following details:

- a) date of the written communication;
- b) Serial Number assigned to the Protected Document;
- c) specific mention if the sender chooses not to reveal his/ her identity;
- d) nature of concern;
- e) Whether the Concern was raised previously by anyone, and if so, the outcome thereof;
- f) Whether any Protected Disclosure was raised previously against the person in question;
- g) The financial/ otherwise loss which has been incurred / would have been incurred;
- h) Whether any person other than a company employee is alleged to be involved;

Chairman of the Audit Committee may, in consultation with the Managing Director, unless Managing Director himself is also in the picture via. the Whistle Blower, decide if on the basis of the brief and any other facts presented, whether any preliminary enquiry is warranted and if so constitute a committee with the Nodal officer as the Convenor, to undertake a preliminary enquiry and submit its findings to the Chairman of the Audit Committee within a specified time.

If upon initial enquiries, the Committee finds that the Concern raised in Protected Disclosure is frivolous or baseless, or that it is not a matter to be investigated further under this Policy, the Committee may so recommend and so record that it may be dismissed in its recommendations to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

In case the Committee is of the opinion that further investigation is required, then it shall be conducted in a fair manner, as a neutral fact-finding process and without presumption of guilt. Arising out of the fact finding, the Committee shall prepare and submit its findings inter-alia, setting out:

- a) facts as discovered;
- b) whether the facts as discovered conclusively affirm the veracity of the complaint and guilt of the person accused of or involved;
- c) financial/ otherwise loss which has been incurred / would have been incurred;
- d) recommendations for taking appropriate action against the person accused of or involved and
- e) preventive measures to avoid reoccurrence of the matter,
- f) Whether Whistle Blower needs to be informed of the outcome of his complaint or not.

The Committee shall submit its recommendations within 30 days of receiving the Complaint and the Chairman of the Audit Committee shall refer the matter to the Chairman and Managing Director of the Company and jointly advise the concerned disciplinary authority to take such disciplinary/other actions as deemed fit.

In exceptional cases, where the Whistle Blower is not satisfied with the outcome of the investigation and the decision, and expresses his intention to appeal, Committee may afford an opportunity, for the Whistle Blower to make a direct appeal to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, through the Nodal Officer no later than 30 days of the communication received in this behalf.

5. Safeguards against victimization of a Whistle Blower and encouragement for responsible and secure whistle blowing.
